

BIOGRAPHY

Elizabeth Doyle

A talented, multilingual singer (English, French, German, Italian) and piano player, Elizabeth Doyle's cabaret and jazz vocal and piano performances, both solo and collaborative, have been featured on-air and live at venues throughout the United States and Europe.

The late Marian McPartland, host of National Public Radio's "Piano Jazz," said Doyle is:

"...one of Chicago's most captivating performers. She blends a dreamy vocal style with swinging piano playing, deftly accompanying herself on both classic standards and her own unique compositions."

A magnet for many years at Chicago's famed Pump Room, Elizabeth has performed throughout the Midwest, as well as on BBC Radio, WTTW-TV (Chicago PBS affiliate), ASCAP New Music Showcase (New York City), the Metropolitan Room and Cafe Sabarsky/Neue Galerie (New York City), Au Lapin Agile, Swan Bar, Studio Raspail and the Museum of Montmartre (Paris, France), The Paradiso (Amsterdam, Holland) and the Schwartzler Bock Hotel (Wiesbaden, Germany).

Elizabeth's original compositions (music, and in many cases, also lyrics) span a wide array of formats — from solo cabaret and jazz pieces to art songs and full theatre musicals. She, and scores of other singers, has performed her original works at numerous locales, ranging from the Chicago Humanities Festival and the Park West, Drury Lane/Water Tower, Baliwick and Victory Gardens theatres in Chicago, to Preston Bradley Hall in Chicago and The Paradiso in Amsterdam, Holland.

An After Dark Award winner and Tim and Helen Meier Foundation recipient, Elizabeth is also the composer of several theatre musicals which have been produced and showcased around the country, from the prestigious Disney/ASCAP New Musical Workshop in Los Angeles, to several Chicago theatres, including Steppenwolf, the Athenaeum and Theatre Wit.

As part of her mission to encourage others to write their own music and lyrics, Elizabeth has presented annual songwriting workshops and concerts for the Bart Howard Foundation in Burlington, Iowa, since 2015.

Her two commercial CDs, Elizabeth Doyle and Time Flies, are available at iTunes and Amazon. Sheet music of her original compositions can be found at <https://www.sheetmusicplus.com/search?Ntt=elizabeth+doyle>
